Welcome to Pastor Kyles and Janet Wallace

Kyles is a native of Asheboro/Randolph County, North Carolina. He, his brother, and parents attended Calvary United Methodist Church in Asheboro where his parents were charter members in 1950. He is married to Janet (more about her later). They were high school sweethearts and have celebrated 39 plus years of marriage. Their daughter, Gretchen Kyle Dawson, and her husband, Robbie, currently live in Houston, Texas where she works as an Oncology Nurse Practitioner.

Kyles has been involved in many phases of ministry. Besides traditional services, he has founded, led and directed contemporary services in former churches. He has experience in many small group ministries such as Disciple Bible study, and mission teams. He is always working on strengthening lay and staff leadership. He is most comfortable with a church that is willing and wanting to grow in every area of ministry: evangelism, missions, education, buildings, staff, youth, etc. He has helped facilitate a $2.7 million expansion of a Christian Life Center at Tabernacle UMC. All these sound like wonderful opportunities for Covenant Church to grow in many ways!

Kyles was educated in the Asheboro City Schools, graduating from Asheboro High School in 1971. He continued his education at Pfeiffer (College) University, 1971-1974, where he earned the Bachelor of Arts degree. He earned the Masters of Divinity from Duke University, 1975-1977, and earned the Doctorate of Ministry degree from Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, 1984-1988.

Kyles has been interested and committed to ministry since his first sermon at age 18. His pastoral appointments of 39 years include appointments in High Point, Canton, Kernersville, Charlotte, Thomasville, and Hendersonville. A little side note, while he was serving at Bunker Hill in Kernersville, he actually saw the groundbreaking ceremony at Covenant Church 25 years ago.

His most recent appointment was Senior Pastor at Tabernacle UMC in Greensboro. He received the License to Preach in 1973, was ordained Deacon in 1976, and ordained Elder in 1979.

His energy, enthusiasm and commitment to ministry are also evident by his service on numerous district and conference boards and committees and local non-profit organizations. These include the Family Life Committee of our Conference, as well as the World Hunger Committee. He has also served nine years on the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, District Committees of Ordained Ministry, District Council on Ministries, District Committee on Superintendency, and two terms as President of the District Ministers' Fellowship. He has served the Northern Piedmont District (our district) as District Trustee, Missional Network Leader, and District Mission Society/District Mission Engagement Committee.

Community service and world missions have brought great joy and fulfillment to Kyles. He has served on the boards of local crisis ministries in each of his appointments. He has served on the Appalachian Region Commission and participated in several service projects in the region. His doctoral project and dissertation were conducted among the poor of Appalachia in 1986-1987. In addition, he was on the first team to Russia and Armenia in 1992. He has recently returned from his 5th Volunteers In Ministry Team trip to Guatemala.

Kyles has served with the Salvation Army, Communities In Schools, YMCA, ACT Coalition, Boys and Girls Club, Boys and Girls Scouts of North Carolina, Rotary International, and others.

His interests include: an avid cyclist for various mission and charity events; foreign travel; study/research of antiquities and history of humankind/world; languages, especially Greek, Hebrew and Aramaic. He also enjoys classic automobiles (think 1966 Mustang) and their restoration.

Janet has been a busy lady as well. Her education after Asheboro High School includes Randolph Technical College and later High Point University with a concentration in Industrial Psychology and Business Administration.

Janet and Kyles married on December 21, 1975. During these 39 years of marriage she has participated in Kyles' ministry with the United Methodist Church serving on many committees and traveling on mission team trips both local and international. She has traveled to Africa twice helping with triage in a clinic at Nakuru. When not in the clinic, she worked with the women of Nakuru instructing them on the craft of felding. This craft helps provide the women with a sellable item to feed their families. She enjoys singing in the choir and playing handbells. She has participated in numerous community choirs.

Janet's last employment was a Senior Consultant and Project Manager from 1995 until 2009 when her employer closed its doors. This change allowed her to focus on her passion for the first time. She has always been fascinated with glass pieces and jewelry. She began studies in kiln-formed glass and silver and has been able to incorporate these techniques with her own development of glass designs. She creates unique pieces of glass and silver jewelry as well as larger glass art and functional pieces. She makes beautiful pieces of art!
